Retro Is In

Just Like Nanna's Place

This cute little retro style home has more room on the inside than it looks from the outside and you must inspect to see for yourself. Having a front sleepout taking you into the lounge room which is separate to the kitchen and dining room. Open the wall between the dining and the lounge room and you will have a nice open plan living space and add a rear deck through the dining room making much better use of such wasted space outside.

A home built in the days of hardwood flooring and framing allows you to make some changes and put a nice modern twist onto this classic home. With 3 bedrooms, each one bigger than the other plus a good size bathroom allowing you to do a little reno and grab some great gains with this property. The kitchen is very typical retro but it is timber and with a fresh coat of paint you will add a great vibe into this home, making it more than just a little house with a big shed. Yes there is some work that needs to be done but that's all part of making it your own.

Large older style shed with timber framing and posts, is still standing after all this time makes me think they must have known what they were building. Full boundary fencing with good side access to the back yard and easy to separate the front yard from the backyard. Come see what a little bit of lovin' can do.
