

Tree Change or The Great Weekender

Getaway From The Everyday

Located at Lot 79 McKee Drive Weranga, this property is situated within 20mins of the township of Tara, 40 mins to the rural town of Dalby in the Western Downs region and approx 3.5hrs West of Brisbane via the Warrego Highway. Could this be the just what the Dr ordered? Allow yourself to get away from the everyday and the hustle and bustle of the city lights? Don't miss out on your chance to own this great piece of acreage.

You can become fully self sufficient and live a more simple life with the choice being yours to make. Build a home and make this a lifestyle block or make it your weekend getaway. There is power and phone services to the area plus council bin collection with the added bonus of a school bus that services the local schools. The town of Tara will provide you with all you needs with local shops, schools and recreational facilities.

There is plenty of wildlife to enjoy along with the nearby Braemar State Forest to explore. Approximately 30acres of bushland for you to enjoy the peace and tranquillity that living on an acreage property can bring. Currently the land is free from any existing structures which will allow you plenty of options and opportunity to develop and design the ideal family homestead of your own. This block is well priced for what is on offer and would certainly allow to hold as an investment with low council rates.
